Dear Allen:

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate your taking the time out of your very busy day to talk to [redacted] and I am glad that you liked the cut of his jib.

[redacted] is most enthusiastic about the possibility of working in your organization and I shall certainly follow your suggestion and let you know what, if anything, develops.

With warmest personal regards,

Cordially yours,

Malcolm Muir

Dear Malcolm:

I had a good talk with [redacted] and started the wheels in motion which I trust will lead to results. He is a very attractive fellow, and I sincerely hope we can find something of mutual interest.

As these young fellows are sometimes unduly modest or become sidetracked by governmental red tape, I hope you will keep me advised as to progress or the lack of, so I can do some follow-up work.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
